

for Susan:

Check out these files that are Open Access in odesi.ca

The following are some of the surveys from Statistics Canada that are Open Access, as long as they are used only for non-commercial teaching or research purposes. There are more datasets available, you just have to browse the data repository to find them.

Please note: the documentation for all surveys is open to the world so if there is a survey for which you want the data but you do not have a subscription to ODESI, you can contact the owner of the data and ask for permission.
