Mother's Birthday.

Today mother is 72 years old, and I just celebrated her 72nd. She is hearty, yet is well preserved for her age, and happily felt today exceedingly well & bright. - In the afternoon brother, Otto, fetched the baby home, & Marie the boys & I joined the happy family circle. Marie had baked for mother an excellent Briezel, which we enjoyed at coffee. We remained to tea. The evening was spent with a cheerful chat. Father & Jacob attended the Luteran meeting in the evening. Otto & I went down to see Father, & was detained for an hour or so. Mr. Drey presbiterator was also present & made a few exhibits of his skill.

Sunday 11
snowy windy

Busy at latitudes. After dinner we were again at mother's, where were also Mr. & Mrs. Drey. They played some duets on guitar & mandolin very acceptably, later he gave some exhibits in respect of how to the great delight of Mrs. Drey. After tea we were again down, when the Dreys showed me how to do some of the tricks. They are an infatuated indigent couple, who have travelled all over Europe & America, but have failed to gain a competency, a circumstance peculiar to many of the better class of Germans. Besides a soft hand & gammon by them, - they like to live well & drink well. -

Monday 12 cold windy

Busy at latitudes. After dinner attended funeral of Jas. Clark Abt, who contracted a cold at Giffister's funeral a week ago & died in consequence thereof. Then came only Patterson who is confined to his house with a bad cold now, & Tom Stephenson driving me, returning the remains at my library till service in the church was over. -

Immediately after supper, Marie drove me to Galt where I took the 7 o'clock train for Ottawa; after leaving Toronto Junction where I got the keeper I met T. Haweath

March who was also en route to Ottawa to attend the annual meeting of the D.L.I. association. — He chatted till after midnight. —

Tuesday 13

Very stormy snow
cold.

This morning we found ourselves at the same place as last night at 10 o'clock - stuck in the snow. A strong wind began blowing last night, snow falling & the thermometer in low spirits. We are  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles from Lyttle a small station and in a Scott ad County. — The small buffer on the train was fixed back almost upright and its larger lower exhaust from the demand of hungry passengers. — The conductor forced in the neighborhood among the frames who dropped a cutter load with coal, bread, eggs & milk to our relief. — But the cars could not be heated, the gale drove the snow into the car through highlights, double windows and at the door, we sat with overcoats on & frequently blankets across our knees. — There were three sleepers and well filled by judges, Senators M.P., delegates &c. I was pleased to find Dr. Seaman, St. Marys, J. Fenwick Flanagan & J. G. Shantz all from Berlin on the train. In the afternoon all gathered in our car for entertainment, which consisted of recitations, speeches, games & music. — The most of the speaking was of a peculiar "choice" nature, among its best exponents were J. M. Daly & J. D. Macpherson. A country lad was found on the train who had a mouth organ, he was brought in to our car & discoursed music by the yard the whole audience joining in singing well known airs. — Our principal diet was eggs. Many a one said "If I'd just thought of it I'd brought something to drink along" but only were we in a Scott ad County but we were had the original Rev. Scott (Senator) on board. — Several prayers were offered on his behalf. — Through the blockade we made mutual acquaintances which otherwise would not have come to pass. — I met J. D. McKenzie of Jarvis, Judge Denckler of St. Catharines, Dr. J. W. Hawke of Brantford, H. H. Cook M.P., Senator Turner of Hamilton, J. L. Ryker M.P., McCullough M.P. &c. — Last the snow was piling up around us in the cut in which we were. —

Wednesday 14

Stormy, cold

Hill here, and the variations in life were a repetition of yesterday, with this difference, the snow abated this afternoon on a number
