

These various games were played amidst shouts of laughter. (Miss G. Duck was present too)
It was 1 1/2 a.m. as we returned home.

Wednesday 26 I am trying to resume my normal work &
will do some work. Matilda & Annie, Carl & Mavis returned to their respective homes.
misty

Thursday 27 Busy in office. In evening attended to when cloudy father performed the ceremony of consecrating & dedicating the new Epitaph. The afternoon we had a supper at Mrs. G's; quite a number from Aspelow & Galt were present & a pleasant evening was spent.

Friday 28 Busy in office. In the evening Mr. & Mrs. Pattison clear family were here. For their children it was a cold gold day - the trees, fountain & then the company of our boys & Madeline.

Saturday 29 Busy in office. In evening Aspelow, Grace Duck cloudy George, Harry, Aggie & Ida Est, Dr & Mrs Gordon
pleasant were here

Sunday 30 Busy in office. Mr. Drispel & wife & Rev. Taylor since were here to tea, the first two spending the evening, but
M.A. at G. joined us.

Monday 31 Busy in the office. I shall be very glad when the holidays cloudy are over and everything assumes its normal condition.
Being the last night in the year we spent it at Father's.
The boys were full of life & fun. The clock struck 12
and there was a rush of mutual greeting for the new year.

1889

amidst tolling of bells & shooting. -

The proverbial winter supper was then enjoyed