

- May
 you to play when they go to bed; to fall asleep under the sounds of music is sweet to them too. -
- Monday 27
 Cool
 rain, high wind
 Busy Computing. In evening attended meeting of freeholders to consider the sidewalk question. I was one of the few who spoke & moved the raising of $2500 by debentures for sidewalks. -
- Tuesday 28
 Cloudy, rain
 night frost 29° F.
 Busy Computing. - For a short time was present at school board meeting - when the not unexpected crisis came, that after all the planning & budgeting - the chairman Geo.
 Pothorn said he couldn't support the expenditure as it is going to be in excess of what was contemplated - $13000 instead of $10,000. - I left in disgust, & here record my comments. - In afternoon made a survey for a school.
 I computed till 3 a.m. -
- Wednesday 29
 Rainy
 Beans & tomatoes were frozen last night. - My eyes are very painful today & I couldn't do much Computing. - Assisted boys at their work. May is getting on in algebra now that it is a pleasure to assist him. -
- Thursday 30
 Rainy
 Busy Computing. - Such continuous rain has not been experienced here in years, besides the weather is very cool &
 a fire is indispensable in my library. - Ascension Day.
- Friday 31
 Rainy

 Main & I were in Gall in forenoon - Busy Computing. - After tea we were out for a walk. -
- Saturday 1
 Cool
 Cloudy.
 Busy Computing. - Dorothea came down, mother returned from St. Catherine's, Carlisle coming along.
- Sunday 2
 Cool, cloudy
 eve rain Computed, wrote etc. Played games with the boys - Sunday being our essential day of recreation. After tea Marie the boys & I took a walk to the river as the water is very high. The novelty of the arrival of a steamer in Portm occurred yesterday when the small Gal steamer ascended the river. - Whit Sunday.
